

CONDITIONS APPLYING TO THE USE OF A ROOM OR ROOMS

FORMING A PART OF THE PREMISES OF UNITY OLDLAND METHODIST CHURCH

Operating from March 2022

1. The agreed time of use is inclusive of time necessary for setting up for and clearing up after your event(s). The rooms are not available until the time of hire and it is important that the room(s) used shall be vacated at the agreed time. As we do not have a caretaker, hirers are asked to ensure that the area(s) they use shall be left clean and tidy. A brush and dustpan is available in the kitchen.
2. All property belonging to you and to any person attending the event for which the room(s) are being used shall be removed from the premises at the end of the event, unless otherwise agreed with a representative of the Church Stewards of Unity Oldland Methodist Church. We cannot accept responsibility for any items left on the premises.
3. You, or a representative appointed by you in the case of an organisation, shall, on arrival for the event, ascertain all relevant emergency exits and fire alarm points. Access along corridors and to emergency exits shall be kept clear at all times. In the case of fire the alarm shall be sounded by breaking the glass at any of the various points in the building. Everyone shall leave by the nearest emergency exit and the Fire Brigade shall be called. You are also responsible for instructing your members as to position of the above exits and alarm centres and organising the evacuation of the building in an emergency.
4. The kitchen and any equipment normally kept in the kitchen may be used by prior agreement. All crockery and cutlery used shall be thoroughly washed, dried and put away and the kitchen left clean and tidy after use. Instructions for the use of the urn are displayed as are instructions for using the dishwasher. Users of the kitchen should be aware of the Food Safety Act 2006, and its requirements. Food preparers should, as necessary, be trained in Food Hygiene, they must also be conversant with the induction hob. Only pans suitable for induction hobs should be used.
There will be an additional charge of £25 should the cooking range be used.
5. Before leaving the premises, any furniture or other items that have been moved shall be returned to their proper places. If tables or chairs are required to be portered for the event there will be a £10 charge as we have no caretaker. All lights, heaters and electrical kitchen equipment used shall be switched off, and any doors for which you have been given a key shall be locked on departure and the key returned, unless otherwise agreed.
